I'll tell you just my answer

My pouring sweat flies through the air

My heart that's aiming for its goal all in one

The haze of the southern wind and the scorching heat
The sweet that's dripping off my cheek is fine as it is, because it's already Y...
The piercing rays of the sun bounce back in a big wave
The seasons pass by like a relay nature that's ready to take off running

If I make a promise with you, the future will make dreams come true (forever in my heart)
Yeah! a downpour that was just like a squall
If the sun comes out, there'll be a rainbow it's a good luck bridge between you and me
With no doubts be my girl

My pouring sweat flies through the air
I'll train my body & soul
My heart that's aiming for its goal all in one

Jewels set in the blue sea
The smile of a deep blue splash the sunlight through the trees watches over us
The sea breeze blows up the bank the future I saw with you
The sand that embraces the heat taking cover under the beach sheet

The two of us are projected on the screen of the sky (sweet memory for my life)
Oh! running through the seasons
Carving it into my heart the memories with you are timeless
Without feeling lost be your men

Shine on! forever
The possibilities that are hiding in us separately
Ride on! your power
With a good tailwind supporting me fall in love

What should we do from now on?
For the whole summer, always escaping
The radiance of your eyes that draws me in is more than I imagined Saying, "there's only right now"..."
Addicted to the thoughts that are like a puzzle
The sea breeze that touched the back of my hair one day
