The sound of the rain echoes your voice was gone
On the other side of the receiver

Who are you with? hiding secrets
You tell me you love me

Your lips cover mine
I hold my feelings back and embrace you

Hey, now, I don't wanna give up this is only the beginning
I'm dependent on your scent
Baby, why we gonna give up? this is only the beginning
Alone, with dangerous eyes, I start running

A silent squeal is heard after the rain
The sound of glass breaking

Where are you now? if I keep waiting here, will you come?

I search my pocket in this hand, there's something dangerous
(All I need is love, just waiting for you, understand?)

Hey, now, I don't wanna give up this is only the beginning
I'm dependent on your presence
Baby, why we gonna give up? this is only the beginning
I start running to the other side

The traces of red lipstick are on the glass
It leaves behind a pain that pierces my heart yeah!

Hey, this is only the beginning this isn't a game
This is only the beginning I won't love anyone else
This is just the beginning I can't get to you
(This is the beginning, this is the start)

Hey, now, I don't wanna give up this is only the beginning

I'm dependent on your scent
Baby, why we gonna give up? this is only the beginning
Alone, with dangerous eyes, I start running
