The hand I was gripping tightly was saying something that if you start running, you'll make it
The me of yesterday who was standing and reading magazines in a convenience store bye-bye

The sound of the streets I started to run through seemed like cheering

Bloom cherry blossoms, in my heart nameless dreams sprouted
Don't turn around because there's no tomorrow behind you go forwards

In front of the station, there's someone singing that song is the one you like
Even if we're far apart, you definitely won't disappear that's why it's not goodbye

Someday I want the two of us to meet by chance at the place we both wish for

Bloom cherry blossoms, in your heart small flower buds shook
So that I wouldn't be defeated, so that I wouldn't be crushed I'll sing now

Something like the future changes instantly I'll change it and show you

"Follow others" and step forward with this step
The spot that I hit will divide the result into yin and yang

So learn the hints for living
Have the energy to grab even a hazy mirage

Now if you scatter the seeds, the flowers will bloom if you do it after you say it, you'll still understand
That's right it's something that will take a lot of time in the spring, big flowers will bloom

I want to meet you by chance for sure

Bloom cherry blossoms, in your heart small flower buds shook
So that I wouldn't be defeated, so that I wouldn't be crushed I'll sing now

Bloom cherry blossoms, in my heart nameless dreams sprouted
Don't turn around because there's no tomorrow behind you go forwards go forwards
