Soon, I'm gonna go this big backpack
Is filled with everyone's feelings one last time, I looked back

"Happiness is something you can always get"
You say and everyone's faces blur with my tears

Dreams that can fly in the sky begin I won't forget that voice
Even if I can't see them hoping they won't disappear hoping they will shine
Stay with me

Sitting alone on a bench looking at the time schedule
It's still faraway the smell of the town I'm going to

Someday, we'll meet again
I wonder if I can stand tall and say it "now, I'm the absolute happiest"

Even on days full of mistakes, I'm hoping I can keep loving
With all my might, I'll watch the dreams hoping they will shine
Stay with me

"Happiness is something you can always get"
I wonder if I can stand tall and say it "I'm the absolute happiest here"

Dreams that can fly in the sky begin I won't forget that voice
Even if I can't see them hoping they won't disappear hoping they will shine
Stay with me

Stay with me...

Soon, I'm gonna go I'll start walking to tomorrow
