涙の雫 夜空に 消えてく 星の光
違う道を選んで 後悔は しないよ

言葉じゃ 伝わらない 気持ちを
涙の雫 夜空に 消えてく 星の光

涙の雫 夜空に 消えてく 星の光
言葉じゃ 伝わらない 気持ちを
涙の雫 夜空に 消えてく 星の光

I wonder where the shooting stars in the night sky full of tears disappear to

I know that we chose different paths, but sometimes I feel like I can hear a voice your voice

We understood each other without words everything shined when you smiled
Each second we grow further away from those days what would the present me talk about?

My fingertips were searching for you while my heart was still screaming out
If we could take back our time, back when we were too young
Then I would love you so much that you'd never leave me again

I was watching your small back as you hurried home in the flow of the crowd
In those days, I believed that there was no way the two of us would be seeing different futures

Since then, I've always been alone but when I close my eyes, I see the two of us
I'm aimlessly passing the days because I've lost my future

There's nothing more important than you I can't act like an adult it's so sad that I can't put it into words
If I could be forgiven, I'd only want a world together with you
I'd love you so much that I'd wrap you up in my arms tenderly

My fingertips were searching for you while my heart was still screaming out
If we could take back our time, back when we were too young
Then I would love you so much that you'd never leave me again
