Give me strength
Give me strength the strength to tell her...

Because those things are important no one can talk about them
Embracing you within my gaze
It'd be fine if we just talk about normal things again and again
It wouldn't end at least not until you noticed it

Give me strength even if the dawn never comes oh... oh... oh... (the bubble
is so for, my girl)
Give me strength even if it turns out that we can't go back anymore oh... oh
... oh... (you can try, you can try)
Give me strength the strength to tell her everything today (what about you, girl?)

The guy that's next to you says on the phone
"She's sleeping here at my place"
Because I'm far away, I can tell
That I know more about you than anyone

Give me strength even if the dawn never comes oh... oh... oh... (the bubble
is so for, my girl)
Give me strength even if it turns out that we can't go back anymore oh... oh
... oh... (you can try, you can try)
Give me strength the strength to tell her everything today (what about you,
girl?)

Whoa... what about, what about you, girl?

Many arctic nights on my own
How could I get your luv? (your love)
(Damn) like a towering fortress
Why is it that I also fell in love?
"I'm a wreck of feelings that I can't stop"
The awful emotions that are emerging are the opposite of love
Ah... lord, please give me strength today
Cuz heart of her's like a bubble
"What about you, girl?"

Give me strength even if the dawn never comes oh... oh... oh...
Give me strength even if it turns out that we can't go back anymore oh... oh
... oh...
Give me strength the strength to tell her everything today

Give me strength even if the dawn never comes oh... oh... oh... (the bubble
is so for, my girl)
Give me strength even if it turns out that we can't go back anymore oh... oh
... oh...

The strength to tell her everything today
The strength to tell her everything today
