My heart feels rough and sandy my head is spinning with dizziness my pain th robs suggestively inside
The tick tack sound grows closer I can't catch my breath but I want it anywa y I want to go deeper

I'm being swallowed up diving deeper (Going to a new world fighting against all around)
My heart already seems like it'll burst
Hey dye it all blue

Go! releasing my doubts I'm only ever looking one way
I want this to reach what is dearest to me it's all for you
Until my heart stops, relentlessly pushing forward
There's no end to this infinite perfect blue

Tempted by the light, my consciousness is fading enveloped by a wondrous sil ence
Becoming aware of the secrets that are sleeping somewhere in the darkness, I start to overheat (it's deeper inside)

I'm a dream seeker wandering in the cobalt blue (Going to a new world stimulated by all around)
Tearing that colorless world to pieces
Hey dye it all blue...

Go! always challenging myself to go to someplace that's not here
Let your passion overflow and go now with this amazing crew
Take the rudder of an unsinkable ship let's go to the farthest ends of the o cean
We'll take you to an unexplored perfect blue

"Stay alive, stay alive, unsinkable, stay alive... this infinite perfect blu e"
"Stay alive, stay alive, gasping for breath, stay alive... an unexplored per fect blue"

Tear drops seem just like pearls
They dissolve into the sand, shining there
Hey dye it all blue

Go! releasing my doubts I'm only ever looking one way
I want this to reach what is dearest to me it's all for you
Until my heart stops, relentlessly pushing forward
There's no end to this infinite perfect blue
