My reflection overlaps in the car window with you who are smiling next to me

You're this close to my side and yet I can't touch you

The melody that plays from the stereo now is just sad to me

I wish I could make you only mine

So don't ever go, ever go, ever go, go away

Even if the dawn breaks

Don't ever go, ever go, ever go, go away

I don't want to let you go home

For just a little bit longer don't say anything and follow me

My heart is crying that it wants to take you away with me

I need you I need you I need you

Even if tonight is the first and last time

The moonlight shines down on you who suddenly sank into silence

Aimlessly wandering on this highway, unable to stop

I wonder since when that what was more dazzling than any landscape was you

The only thing that leads me astray is you

So don't ever go, ever go, ever go, go away

Turn your heart around towards me

Don't ever go, ever go, ever go, go away

Because I don't want to let you go

Our destiny is something that no one can break

Don't cry with those eyes because I'll hold you close

I love you I love you I love you

At the very least, I pray that tonight will last forever

Even if I hide away the words I want to tell you

My love would overflow so much that it would make you shiver

For just a little bit longer don't say anything and follow me

My heart is crying that it wants to take you away with me

I need you I need you I need you

Even if tonight is the first and last time
