Wave! wave! wave!

Wave! wave! wave!

Your summer was spent standing on the beach, saying, "we'll be able to meet here again next year, right?"

Ah, it's so painful I embraced you one more time

Our eyes look above the swaying waves, before the falling fireworks disappear

Ah, it's so short tomorrow we'll be going to different cities

Everybody, wave! with our unsteady emotions
Wave like you want to! we can't go back anymore
Our wave! chasing after us
From the beginning, I had loved you

Singing a love song that rides on the wind no matter how many years pass
Ah, it won't make it to the future if that's the case, then just for tonight

Everybody, wave! even hesitation
Wave like you want to! passes by
Our wave! don't go
At this place, together with you again

This year too, we'll gather at "the usual place"
As expected, gradually we won't be able to see our surroundings
Because it's these feelings, they shouldn't be hidden if I tell you, it'll be just the two of us getting closer and closer
The waves approaching from afar more and more, I want to see into the depth of those eyes
I've run out of impulsive words
I've just been forcing them out

Everybody, wave! with our unsteady emotions
Wave like you want to! we can't go back anymore
Our wave! chasing after us
From the beginning, I had loved you

Everybody, wave!
Wave like you want to! it passes us by
Our wave! don't go

At this place, together with you again

Wave! wave! wave!
