〇〇〇〇〇 〇〇〇〇 〇〇〇〇〇〇〇〇〇 your dream! your dream!

The days pass by everyday, I can't look back
I wonder how much further this road will go?

The beat of the rhythm you feel in your body with your wings, you make a hesitant approach
It's so dear to you it's painful

We can make it true there's always a dream that's real by my side
In this boundless, vast world, there was only one thing that shone my dream!
my dream!
We can make it! we can make it!

The tears overflowed without even noticing the important things in my eyes
I wonder since from how long ago did I forget these feelings what a feeling

To the limit of the strength that you can hold with your wings, climb over loneliness
Push on to tomorrow

We can make it true there's a dream that's unshakable there
In this boundless, vast world, right now, grasp it your dream! your dream!
Oh yeah! we can make it!

Surely, tears aren't the end of sadness, but the footsteps of a dream
With passion in your heart (now, from here) that story
Will begin sing the dream!

When I was only silent
I wrote dream as "my goal"
On the other side of imagination let's go over there
Go, go and go and on and on

When I was only silent

On the other side of imagination let's go over there
Go, go and go and on and on
