cast on my shoulders
When the wind and waves pick up see? because I could meet you, I'm getting e mbarrassed

To shine touch this sky that it seems like we could reach
If you're ready, put your hands up hey! (yeah!...)

Everyone's voices make our feelings rise higher and higher emotion that shak es your whole body
If we remove this limiter, we'll go high like on a dizzying roller coaster Good time don't let this moment that will never happen again slip by Everybody, take a step forward let's start running

We were able to meet again here, weren't we? (you and me) with the same kind of smiles
The things that we want to convey (all the time) will never change

Let's go party, party, party, party should we get this party time started?
Everything should be ready to go Keep on going, going, going let out a loud shout make some noise
The beginning of a new story will be born from here

Say yeah! oh! until the limit of your voice say yeah! oh! let's become one Make you happy, happy, happy, happy we were waiting for you It's a party time so that we'll become happy

If you're ready, put your hands up hey! (yeah!...)

If everyone is here, the effectiveness will be multiplied if we put our voic es together, we can make it louder So much that it seems like it'll reach into the sky we can feel that we are free!
Good day don't let this moment that will never happen again slip by same

If you reach out your hand (all the time) we'll always be connected
