

Circle of Trust

Arcade Fire

A pair of angel wings lie on the dance floor
So I know that you are here tonight

Visions of a silver ring circle around you
When I'm falling catch me in your sight

Watching you dancing it could be us
Inside the circle of trust
Watching you dancing it could be us
Inside the circle of trust

(Circle of, circle of)
Circle of trust
(Circle of, circle of)

The glitter of your eyes a maze I memorize
I'm baptized in your electric light
Second star to the right
And straight on till morning
We escape into the ecstatic night

Watching you dancing it could be us
Inside the circle of trust
Watching you dancing it could be us
Inside the circle of trust

(Circle of, circle of)
Circle of trust
(Circle of, circle of)
Circle of trust
(Circle of, circle of)
Circle of trust
(Circle of, circle of)

I'm with Kid Ikarus
He says his name's on the list
Says if you hadn't kissed him
He wouldn't exist
The Archangel Michael
Is blowing up your phone
He wants to know where you are
And when you're coming home
And when you're coming home

He's watching us dancing thinking it could be us
Inside the circle of trust
He's watching us dancing thinking it could be us
Inside the circle of trust

(Circle of, circle of)
Circle of trust
(Circle of, circle of)
Circle of trust
(Circle of, circle of)
Circle of trust
(Circle of)

On his motorcycle
Sets the city on fire
To fight for your love

I would die for your love
Write your name in fire in the sky for your love
I would steal, I would kill, I would lie for your love
Lie awake all night in a cloud in the sky and cry over your love

Circle of trust
