

Pink Elephant

Arcade Fire

You're always nervous with the real thing
Mind is changing like a mood ring
Jumping every time the phone rings
'Cause your mind's off of me

Families faking on the TV
Live in the spectrum that we can't see
Crying tears that we don't believe
Keeps your mind off of me

Take your mind off me a little while
In the darkest place I saw you smile
And the way it all changed
Makes me wanna cry, but
Take your mind off me, yeah

Your fake friends, they go out dancing
But you're too busy neuromancing
Every circuit in your heart sings
Keeps your mind off of me

Take your mind off me a little while
In the darkest place I saw you smile
And the way it all changed
Makes me wanna cry, but
Take your mind off me, yeah

I don't think about you
The warm rain in June
The feeling that my life had finally found some meaning
Don't think about you
Well, what can I do?
Now it's all irrelevant
Don't think about Pink Elephant, no

Take your mind off me, yeah
Take your mind off me, yeah
And the way it all changed
Makes me wanna cry, but
Take your mind off me, yeah

Yeah
Yeah
The way it all changed
Makes me wanna cry, but
Take your mind off me, yeah
