

Energy Is Never Lost, Just Redirected

Arcane Roots

Forlorn your heart
This scratch will leave a mark
And you'll fall, you'll sob
But you'll walk, you'll walk
And now you'll understand
This love lost never went
And your god is not enough, enough

You'll never figure, though I know you'll try to Bend all that seems to comply
You're not that apparent
It's not the feat but all the time you tried to
All will become clear in...
I cannot tell you, you will not listen

Forlorn your heart
This scratch will leave a mark
And you'll fall, you'll sob
But you'll walk, you'll walk
And now you'll understand
This love lost never went
And your god is not enough, enough, enough

There is no other but the one you pine for
Hold in your heart and your pride
You can't change what happened

So suffer, liars
Nobody's at fault
You can't hold it in
Suffer, liars
So suffer, liars
Nobody's at fault
You can't hold it in
Suffer, liars

Forlorn your heart
This scratch will leave a mark
And you'll fall, you'll sob
But you'll walk, you'll walk
And now you'll understand
This love lost never went
And your god is not enough, enough, enough

Forlorn your heart
This scratch will leave a mark
And you'll fall, you'll sob
But you'll walk, you'll walk
Your god is not enough, enough, enough
