

Landslide

Arcane Roots

Landslide
Were you waiting for the people?
To rewind us
They become to you equal
In the dark, in the dark

Landslide
Will you show them something that they've
Never heard of?
Will you make them feel the reverence
Of your words? Of your words
Of your words

I feel the floodwaters there
Waiting for a moment to heal
People run away is your chance
But I pray for it

What if our Gods are the same?
Waiting for something more
It's like we're caught in the way
Helpless to carry on
Don't think I'll ever forget
All that I ever saw
And all I let carry on
