

You Are

Arcane Roots

If you know who you are
When everything falls apart
You are, you are
If you keep it together
When everything comes untethered
You are, you are
Whole.

And if you hold it in,
Until the sides wear thin
You are, you are
And when our time is through,
You'll see in front of you
You are, you are

You let the light stream over
You let the light stream over you
We can do better now you are.
You let the light stream over
You let the light stream over you
We can do better now you are.

Now you are
Now you are
Now you are
Now you are
Like you are
Like you are
Like you are
Like you are

So let's build a house though I don't know how
Let's make it some place that we'll call home
So let's build a house though I don't know how
