

Curse of Reincarnation

Arch of Hell

It's the curse of reincarnation
That force us to stay in this world
(That's our damnation)
Hiding in all around you
Ancient rules are throned

It's the only thing we cannot choose
Reborning over and over
(Hidden Sanctuary)
All the creatures crave to be us
But they don't know the cost

Through the time and space
Neverending life and me
Reborning again within living entities
That's the curse of my race

Through the time and space
Neverending life and me
Reborning again within living entities
That's the curse of our race

Rebirth always starts in the end
This ancestors heritage is like imprisonment
