

Romance Of Afterlife

Arch of Hell

Look on thorns in my eyes
And die for my pleasure
Don't try to deal with the god
You felt in to the devil
Lucifer gave me the key of hell's gate
Welcome in your freaky wonderland

Our calm is away
There something was changed
They want for twenty four seven
You must obey!

I don't hear you voice
Like this fully dried up creek
That's my despair
That's just one of my deal

To die, to sleep that's not enough
Point of your life is desire
And that's my vengeance

Vengeance's only result of treachery
The another hand of forgiveness
Endless world of sins is calling for cure
And that's your choice how to behave
Defeat is only result of weakness
The another hand of victory
Depends on you, what will be the right one
In your mind...

Obey! Obey! Obey! Obey!

I don't allow your selfish plea
For mercy devour by worms
You will be in your own honor grave
Forgot in devotions will be my vengeance
For your vicious life wine
And blood sin and lust
