

Bleed For This

Archers

Crawling back to my sanity
How did fall so fucking far
My own complacency it gets the best of me
Sinking further to the depths of apathy

Onward
Climbing hand over fist
The path ahead it never ends
No
I will not rest

Let these hands
Be my testament
To show the world
To show the world
That I live and breathe for this
I'll sweat and bleed for this

Bloody broken and naked
Pulling myself from a hell of my own making
I've reached the top to find
That there's no end in sight
I've still got another mountain to climb

I can't stop now
I've already come so far
I take one last look at where I've been
And I start again

Let these hands
Be my testament
To show the world
To show the world
That I live and breathe for this
I'll sweat and bleed for this
(I'll sweat and bleed for this.)

I've been passed by and cast aside more times than I can tell
Enough to know that moving on means you can't keep standing still (You can't keep standing still)

Let these hands
Be my testament
To show the world
To show the world
That I live and breathe for this
I'll sweat and bleed for this

Let these hands
Be my testament
To show the world
To show the world
That I live and breathe for this
