

Safe Now

Archers

I was there when your whole world crumbled
And left you sifting through the rubble
As the future that you always dreamt of Fades

It's been a year and you're still crying
You say you're fine but I don't buy it
Safe inside but you're still hiding
Safe now

There's nothing I can say to bring you comfort
Nothing I can say to bring you peace
Nothing I can do to make it better
Would you rather I just leave?

There's nothing I can say

You knew I'd be too late to notice
The pocket that you hid your note in
I've never felt so fucking hopeless
Are you safe now?

There's nothing I can say to bring you comfort
Nothing I can say to bring you peace
Nothing I can do to make things better
But I'm not ready to leave

There's nothing I can say

Safe and sound
Six feet down
No one can hurt you when you're underground

Finally home
Name in stone
You should be here but
I'm all alone

And I can't feel you
I can't feel

Are you safe now?

There's nothing I can say to bring you comfort
Nothing I can say to bring you peace
There's nothing I can do to make it better
But I will never leave

There's nothing I can say
