

Darkness Has Returned

Archgoat

Hell has opened its Mouth
Hear the Sound of Rumbling Skies
My Skin turns Cold
As the Darkness Falls
The presence of the End
Above the Blazing Stars
Rising from the Depths
The Beast of Darkness awakens
Raise the damned Storms
Across the Land and Skies
The Horizon Expands
And the Skies turned Black

The Darkness has returned
The Darkness has returned

You Who with the Death
Abstracted all the Hope
You Who with the Sins
Unchained the Man
You Who with the Light

Blinded the Fools
You Who with the Fire
Cleansed the f*cking Herd

Fires of the Pit arise
They open the Sky wide
The Dark inverted Star
Nightmare enters the World
Blackness fills the Void
From the seventh Circle of Hell
He has come, to answer My call
Hail to the Lord of the Skies
The Grand Nuclear Beast Arise
With Horns on his Head
The Great Tormentor unleashed

The Darkness has returned
The Darkness has returned
