The Blues

Architects

Never, never lose sight Of what you started it for No matter what comes in between

And I used to think That I knew better than those around me But something changed along the way And you're the reason I'm wanting to stay

I used to sink and now I swim I've had to work for everything

When will you recognize your it, you're the reason I feel so alive And none else comes in between

I used to think That I knew better than those around me But something changed along the way And you're the reason I'm wanting to stay

I can't turn my back and leave you After all you've done for me I can't turn my back and leave you After all you've done for me

The blues have wrapped their arms Around me and I can't make sense of it The blues have wrapped their arms Around me I wish it was you instead The blues have wrapped their arms Around me and I can't make sense of it The blues have wrapped their arms Around me

Oh how I wish it was you instead

I never knew I could feel like this

The blues have wrapped their arms Oh how I wish it was you instead The blues have wrapped their arms Oh how I wish it was you instead The blues have wrapped their arms Oh how I wish it was you instead
