

The Empty Hourglass

Architects

Every moment is dead to me

Do you remember?

Because I can't forget

The saddest story, of all that ever was, or will be

Laid out before me

A living heart attack

Play it back, play it back

Take my eyes, I cannot see sense

Past and future tense. Every moment is dead to me

Safe and sound, anywhere but here

I see it crystal clear, but it means nothing to me

It means nothing to me

It means nothing to me

Have you seen a future, filled with regret?

Breathe and count to ten

Start over again

You want to run away

Just let yourself decay

A living heart attack

Play it back, play it back

The empty hourglass

We're going nowhere fast

There's no more time to kill

If time is standing still

Take my eyes, I cannot see sense

Past and future tense. Every moment is dead to me

Safe and sound, anywhere but here

I see it crystal clear, but it means nothing to me

It means nothing to me

It means nothing to me

Play it back, play it back

Over and over again

Over and over again

The empty hourglass

We're going nowhere fast
