

Game Of Pool

Archive

Playing games
plastic dolls killing time with alcohol I need grass and beer to make the world a little less weird to make the world a little more mine my soul feels guilty before my body sins
always twist then ride like a candle flame
life is hard life is short but it ain't nobody's fault life is just a game of a pool but it can't hurt a fool no it can't hurt a fool oh it can't hurt a fool
