

Lightning Love

Archive

When I was a boy I helped build a dream
And I was a man scared of what I'd see
Shadows fade in the morning light
And I was a man scared of what I'd see
Time is here to build a tomb
And I was a man scared of what I'd see
Falling to a beautiful sky
And I was a man scared of what I'd see
Come up close, feeling high
And I was a man scared of what I'd see

These times abide
This is how I felt last night

Don't take it away again
Don't take it away again
Don't take it away again
'Cause I'll be back within the hour
And I'll let you have that power

Fever, no
Fever, no
Fever, no
Fever, no

Can I have a piece of your lightning love
Fever, no
Standing like a mountain now, there's no shadow up front
Fever, no
Fall into my beautiful sky
Fever, no
These times abide
This is how I felt last night

Don't take it away again
Don't take it away again
Don't take it away again
'Cause I'll be back within the hour
And I'll let you have that power

Don't take it away again
Don't take it away again
Don't take it away again
'Cause I'll be back within the hour
And I'll let you have that power
