Fact becomes fiction
Fiction becomes true
The lies will be written
Into history books

The invisible army
Who are you gonna choose
The invisible army
They're coming for you

I'm a man with a tear in my voice
I'm a man with a fear of my choice
I'm a man with a gun as a brain
The invisible army they carry my pain
The invisible army is marching for you
Let them carry you too
Let them carry you too

Silently stumping
Speaking in tongues
Out with certainty
I'm sour from the blame

The invisible army
Who are you gonna choose
The invisible army
They're coming for you

I'm a man with a tear in my voice
I'm a man with a fear of my choice
I'm a man with a gun as a brain
The invisible army they carry my pain
The invisible army is marching for you
Let them carry you too

Silently stumping and speaking in tongues
Goodness and brain carry my pain
Jump they say, jump they say
Jump they say

Who are you gonna choose
Who are you gonna choose
Who are you gonna choose
Who are you gonna choose

Silently stumping and speaking in tongues
Goodness and brain carry my pain
Jump they say, jump they say
Jump they say, jump they say

Who are you gonna choose
Who are you gonna choose
Who are you gonna choose
Who are you gonna choose

My personal army is going to war
My personal army is going to war

Who are you gonna choose
