

Surrounded By Ghosts

Archive

There's a war
There's a war still raging
Battle cry
Battle cry ain't fading

And if we stay alive
We can tell them what we've won
And if you stay alive
You can tell them what you've done

So surrounded by ghosts

All the Gods
All the Gods are waiting
Call to arms
Call to arms and angels

And if we stay alive
We can tell them what we've won
And if you stay alive
You can tell them what you've done

Surrounded by ghosts
