

Words on Signs

Archive

Close those eyes down
We all fall down
Into the space
Gone with no trace

Feel your heart slow
Where will we go
Into the sunlight
Or the dead of night?

There's nobody here for me now

So much running scared
Living breathing dead

There's nobody here for me now

Silence fills you through
A time to tell the truth
See the words on signs
It ends with the blink of an eye
