

Down

Arco

when despair is revealed as the night that you face there's a light it conceals

you're not alone
our dreams are all down
burned themselves out
we're all lonely now

distant lies this deceit heroes death can deny take a breath and repeat

we're all lonely now

out of control
wondering how
we let ourselves down
it's all over now

all over now
