

Speak

Arco

how can i speak?
you've taken all the words nothing to say when you know you can't be heard and silence isn't golden, it's absurd but you won't give me the words how can i live?

you've taken all the ways nothing to do just filling up the days and this is not a role i choose to play but i don't have a say push me down but don't complain if i don't join in your game
