Ad Absurdum

Arcturus

This dead orchestra Play on instruments Strung with the fibres Of my mind

And skeletons dance They have no voice And no complaint

But I am still flesh And will not serve You vampire fools Bringing you life By invoking dead

I'm tired of telling stories With this ghostvoice of mine So you can say you don't Believe in ghosts

You drink me animal Wasted on my madness Leaving me blank and empty

But tonight
I'm Houdini
Gonna kill my shadow
Penetrate your sanctum

See your loss
Through your eyes
And laugh as two
You not knowing why
And wanting to die
