

Captain Allen

Arcwelder

Hold me to something besides this 'i don't mind'
'cause I'll line the streets without you and your kind
If you feel like lying you'll fit in after all
But nothing's as clear as the crystal of clueless

There's nothing so clear
And you want to see through the fear
And it seems to mean what it seems to mean
But it dies no matter what
No matter what
And somehow you know it will
Like captain allen says
It feels like less than it is

Stop me before I say too much again
'cause I'd like to think that there's something in nothing
If you feel like dying just hang around awhile
'cause nothing's worth less than the less of what you know

And you have no rules
'cause you wanted to be so cool
And it seems to mean what it seems to mean
But it dies no matter what
No matter what
And somehow you know it will
Like captain allen says
It feels like less than it is

Voice 1:

I wanna feel just like captain allen feels
And I wanna live just like captain allen lives
I wanna see just like captain allen sees
And I wanna be just like captain allen is

Voice 2:

How many times have I heard that one before
How many times how many times how many times

Voice 3:

Don't feel less anymore
