Arcwelder

The pit of fear and the roots of fools
I took the lies and made them rules
If it is over why do I doubt
If you don't feel then let me out

You can't become a different you
Why did I think instead of do
With all there is to lose or gain
Why do I only see the pain

'cause I feel. . . feel. . . I feel. . . feel. . . unknown. . .
unknown

I have no pride for what's been done
I fought the war that no one won
I'm guilty of the guilt unclear
I only wish that you were here

A fenceless sky for the first time
I could not recognize the sign
It's how it feels like getting old
I hope the universe ain't cold

'cause I feel. . . feel. . . I feel. . . feel. . . unknown. . .
