run wild

Arden Jones

Said no I won't hide
That'll get me where I started
Man, I really gotta run wild
Get back up again
I guess on the upside
I won't be broken-hearted
But I really gotta run wild
Get back up again (Yeah)

They say "Stay in your lane"
Got a whole damn road to myself
And I'm goin' insane
I sold my soul
Put a brand new hole in my belt
You say you're the same, no way, if so
There's no more hope, I need help
Nobody to blame
I blame my brain
There's no controlling myself

Everybody smile wide but they insecure
The game so fake
You won't believe
They like "I'm not into her
I know for a fact she's into me"
I think money the culprit
I call bullshit
Everybody 'round me think they fly
That's how the problems go
Life's lower than low
Generation that gotta stay high

Said no I won't hide
That will get me where I started
Man, I really gotta run wild
Get back up again (Get back up again)
I guess on the upside
I won't be broken-hearted
But I really gotta run wild
Get back up again

Yeah they say that boy can sing
There ain't no way he can rap
Check the comments
I got people there comparing me to Mac
Shit be stupid
We all know that Mac the GOAT and that's a fact
I'm not there at all
But I swear that it feels like I'm on track
Bitch, I'm underage
Playing shows for twenty-one and over
Had to cop a fake
Me and Jack the same recording sober
But we down to rage
That just mean we focus on the work before we down to play
Y'all can't do a day

What a concept
We gon' flip the script
We been on shit that you ain't on yet
Only time the script be flipped on me is when I'm on set
I wanna be in movies
TV scenes
I'm a bomb threat
But they gon' say that's far fetched

Said no I won't hide
That will get me where I started
Get back up again (Get back up again)
Get back up again (Get back up again)
Said no I won't hide
That will get me where I started
Get back up again
