

Ready

Ardhito Pramono

In every minute you are right to see
My only reason still alive
You are the meaning, I'm your lonely sea
You keep me breathing, be alright

That's how we know
Don't worry about me, baby
Know
Someday you will leave me maybe
So I'd go to be alone, just

Say things to me 'cause I must be ready
You must get ready
To leave me, baby
Say nice things to me 'cause I must be ready
You must get ready
To leave me, baby

Only a minute or eternally
My heart keeps beating in your eye
I'm yours completely, you're my tangerine
It keeps me crawl into your arms

That's how we know
Don't worry about me, baby
I know
Someday you will leave me maybe
So I'd go to be alone, just

Say things to me 'cause I must be ready
You must get ready
To leave me, baby
Say nice things to me 'cause I must be ready
You must get ready
To leave me, baby

Don't worry about me, baby
Someday you will leave me maybe
So I'd go to be alone, just

Say things to me 'cause I must be ready
You must get ready
To leave me, baby
Say nice things to me 'cause I must be ready
You must get ready
To leave me, maybe

'Cause you must be on the way
