

Cassandra Pt2

Area 11

Still,
Though it doesn't really matter now
I can't believe that I got so far,
I got so far behind
My love

You used me, and I use you
I your savior, you my muse
The best friend that you've been to me
But I wanna be your enemy
(I wanna be your enemy)

You stare at me with those amorous eyes
You want a reaction, want a reaction
You wear a red dress, when you're in a bull fight
Your drawing attention to your double life

In dreams, I'm coming to find you
And when I wake up, I want anyone else
'Cause I don't love you
That's what I'm telling myself

This was the moment, this was the place
This was the night that everything changed
I'm hiding from you, hiding from you,
Hiding from you, 'cause we are the same

Were not just numbers we are alive
A digital haunt in an analog life
I'm hiding from you, hiding from you
Hiding inside you, 'cause we are the same
Woo!

Wait, just wait for me and I'll come around
Back up, log on and we'll leave this town
And we'll run around
And live in secret worlds and say our secret words

And I'm still encrypted, I am a machine
The ego behind this computer screen
My best friend that I've never seen
That's turned you into my enemy

Now it's all in my mind I feel
I should save myself before this gets too real

This was the moment, this was the place
This was the night that everything changed
I'm hiding from you, hiding from you
Hiding from you, 'cause we are the same

We're not just numbers we are alive
A digital haunt in an analog life
Im hiding from you, hiding from you
Hiding inside you, 'cause we are the same.
