

Homunculus

Area 11

Balanced Equation
Something gained something lost
It cost me an arm and a leg
But I won't lose you at any cost

As we abandon hope of comprehension
I can see something appear in the sulfur
Lines on the ground carry righteous intension
Hoping to God
That theories hold up

I watched you slip away
As all our dreams turned into dust
Such a price to pay
Exchanging flesh for steel and rust
We stood and watched as the flames embraced
All we left behind erased
And I'm lost for words to say

Now I freeze; paralysed
Terrified of what I'll find
In the shadows I hear the cry
Transmutation; Homunculi

Now I freeze; paralysed
Terrified of what I'll find
In the shadows I hear the cry
Transmutation; Homunculi

Do you feel?

Lust, and Pride, and Gluttony,
Envy, Wrath, and Sloth, and Greed
Lust, and Pride, and Gluttony,
Envy, Wrath, and Sloth, and Greed

Humans are just weaknesses, that's what you believe (that's what you believe
)
Now I have come to realise that's simply jealousy

Now I freeze; paralysed
Terrified of what I'll find
In the shadows I hear the cry
Transmutation; Homunculi

Now I freeze; paralysed
Terrified of what I'll find
In the shadows I hear the cry
Transmutation; Homunculi

Do you feel?

Now, now, do you feel?

I watched you slip away
As all our dreams turned into dust
Such a price to pay

Exchanging flesh for steel and rust
We stood and watched as the flames embraced
All we left behind erased
And I'm lost for words to say
(Now I'm lost for words to say!)

Now I freeze; paralysed
Terrified of what I'll find
In the shadows I hear the cry
Transmutation; Homunculi

Now I freeze; paralysed
Terrified of what I'll find
In the shadows I hear the cry
Transmutation; Homunculi

Do you feel?
