

Time Machine

AREA21

If I had a time machine
I would go back, do it all over again, but
I don't have a time machine
So all I have left are these memories
If I had a time machine
I would go back, do it all over again, but
I don't have a time machine
So all I have left are these memories

When I was younger, just a kid
All the days went by and I didn't give a sh-
Did whatever I want whenever I want, was great
Wow, I really miss those days
Man, I wish those days could last forever
'Cause suddenly, all this weird stuff startin' to really matter
Like I gotta match my shoes and my outfit together
Now life is all about money, and the more, the better
Man, when did things all change?
Whatever happened to the good old days?
Wow, we wanted to grow up so fast
Why couldn't all of those good times last?
When life was much more than gettin' likes
When you could find joy just by sittin' on your bike
When a hug from your mom could make everything alright
Wow, I really miss those days

If I had a time machine
I would go back, do it all over again, but
I don't have a time machine
So all I have left are these memories
If I had a time machine
I would go back, do it all over again, but

So all I have left are these memories

Did whatever I want whenever I want, was great
Wow, I really miss those days
Man, I wish those days could last forever
'Cause suddenly, all this weird stuff startin' to really matter
Like I wonder if we fall in love, will we stay together?
Seems like nobody ever really makes it 'til forever
Man, and now my lifestyle changed
One day, these'll be the good old days
Yeah, no more growin' up so fast
We gotta make these good times last
'Cause life is much more than gettin' likes
And you can find joy just by sittin' on your bike
And a hug from your mom could make everything alright
Wow, I really love these days

If I had a time machine
I would go back, do it all over again, but
I don't need a time machine
'Cause one day, these'll be our memories
If I had a time machine

I would go back, do it all over again, but
