

I always wondered how my destiny would go
Taken by the ocean - abducted by a ufo
Caught in a field with a crowd of devotees
Waiting for the final judgement!

No repentance here - don't try to feed my fear
By now you should have learnt
I'll leave on my own terms!

I always wondered how my story would resolve
A strong defiant gesture - resolute and bold
Not lying here in shit - corrupted by disease
Waiting for the final judgement!

No repentance here - don't try to feed my fear
By now you should have learnt
I'll leave on my own fucking terms!

Don't tell me - what you think i should believe
Don't tell me - what you think i should believe
Don't you sow - those dark prophetic seeds
Watch them grow - into hysterical screams

No repentance here - don't try to feed my fear
(can you hear me - can anybody hear ?e)
By now you should have learnt I'll leave on my own terms!
(can you hear me - can anybody hear me)

So now I'm ready to accept what comes
There is no rapture here so
I must take this final journey
I must walk alone

No repentance here - don't try to feed my fear
By now you should have learnt
I'll leave on my own terms!
