Locked away for fifty years
Hidden from the cares of time
What research were you doing here?
Some 'off the books' idea
That dared to cross the line?

Tell me what I'm looking for
Please tell me what I see

We walked into a long-lost room
Hidden from the outside world
With secrets here - waiting to be revealed
We walked into a long-lost room
Hidden from the outside world
Is it wise to turn the key?

Lying in the shadows
Strengthened by the cold of neglect
A cradle of discovery
What mysteries have been solved?
What vision does this place protect?

Tell me what I'm looking for
Please tell me what I see

We walked into a long-lost room
Hidden from the outside world
With secrets here - waiting to be revealed
We walked into a long-lost room
Hidden from the outside world
Is it wise to turn the key, to break the seal?

Fifty years
Over eighteen thousand days
Somebody preserved this space
Captured for a future date

Fifty years
Nearly half a million hours
Somebody preserved this space
Captured for a future date

And now - We return
We go in - And we learn
Tell me what I'm looking for
Tell me what I see
Tell me what I'm looking for
Tell me what I see

We walked into a long-lost room
Hidden from the outside world
With secrets here - waiting to be revealed
We walked into a long-lost room
Hidden from the outside world
Is it wise to turn the key?
