

Welcome to the Cage

Arena

No more choices born from freedom
No more kings and no more kingdom come Live in fear of what your doubts are
You may find all your nightmares
Knocking down your ivory tower
Welcome, welcome, welcome to the cage
Welcome, welcome to the world we made

Forced apart by blind divisions
Inspiration, rash decision making
Ignorance and tears, innocence and early years
Beware the chaos that will tear apart that game you play

Welcome, welcome, welcome to the cage
Welcome, welcome to the world we made
Welcome, welcome, welcome to the cage
Welcome, welcome to the heart and soul
that freed the slaves

When you're forced to the wall
By the sheer weight of will
When you're fighting between one another
Be sure that you know who the prisoners are
And don't turn against your own brother

Behind every thought is a far greater plan
You can feel as the elements gather
Be sure on which side of the bars you are on
You will live with your choices forever..... forever.... .forever!
Forever.....evereverevereverever

Welcome, welcome, welcome to the cage
Welcome, welcome to the world we made
Welcome, welcome, welcome to the cage
Welcome, welcome to the heart and soul
that freed the slaves
Welcome, welcome, welcome to the cage
Welcome, welcome to the world we made
Welcome, welcome, welcome to the cage
Welcome, oh, to the shattered world we tried to save
The spirit that will never fade
Heart and soul that freed the slaves
Welcome, welcome to the cage!
