

You

Aretha Franklin

Ooh, ooh, ooh... ooh-wee, baby

Hey, baby. You know, I realize that I don't tell you just how much I appreciate you sometimes, although I do think it and I do feel it

And since I do, I think right now would be a mighty good time to just stop right here and now and do this, just for you
Yes, I do... I'm doin' it for you, baby

You been with me through the hardest times
And you've kept my body, heart, and soul, and mind together
You, you, oh, you
Yeah, yeah

And it's been us two against the world
And it ain't been easy, but we sho' made it together, baby
Thanks to you, to you, oh, you

Oh, and I just wanna say baby, oh, baby, I love you
And oh, baby, oh, baby, I love you, yes I do... yeah

I get a chill, and I always will
Every time I think about every little thrill
Of wanting you, touching you, calling you
You know I do

And oh, yeah

And it may not be... it may not be necessary
But ooh-wee, I sure think that you're extra-ordinary
Thanks to you, to you, thanks to you, baby
And oh...

Thanks to you, baby, every day, you... I'm talkin' 'bout you, yeah

Every, every, every day, you... you're pretty special to me, baby

I'm talkin' 'bout you

Yeah! Yeah, you, baby... I'm talkin' 'bout you, now... Nobody but you

Oh! Oh, oh! You, baby... I'm talkin' 'bout you, now... I'm doin' it just for you

Hey! Hey, every day, you, yeah... I'm doin' it for you, baby... I'm singin' it just for you

Oh, you, baby... you, baby... for nobody but you

Every, every day, you, now... yeah, you, baby... I'm doin' it just for you

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, you now, ooh, you
