

Cast Your Spell Uranus

Argent

She was forty-one, I could've been her son
They call her the princess of the Moon
She had the cars, the clothes, and the scenes
I had my long hair and my jeans

Take me to the tower
Make love to the Moon
Uranus, Uranus
Put your spell on me

Put it hard, put it long
Or we'd better do wrong
Cast your spell, Uranus
Put your spell on me

These don't mean a thing, it makes me feel a king
In fact, it fills my mind with pride
It makes me feel good when people see it's you
They don't believe it's you who's by my side

Take me in the morning
Keep me through the night
Uranus, Uranus
Put your spell on me

Put it hard, put it long
Or we'd better do wrong
Cast your spell, Uranus
Put your spell on me

Take me to the tower
Take me there, too
Uranus, Uranus
Put your spell on me

Put it hard, put it long
Or we'd better do wrong
Cast your spell, Uranus
Put your spell on me
