You and I both know that I never mattered
Only exist for you when it's after hours
I hope you spend your nights alone choking on flowers

You never pick your phone up
Only callin' me when you're alone and fucked up
You never pick your phone up
Always pulling shit and I might just give up
You never pick your phone up
Don't try to kiss me just to make me shut up
Don't fucking hit my phone up
Don't fucking hit my phone up

Ahhh ahhh ahhhh ah oh
Ahhh ahhh ahhhh ah oh

Don't lie I know when you see me, I make you nervous
'Cause with me you can't hide it, I see beneath the surface
Don't tell me we should talk, you know don't deserve it

You never pick your phone up
Only callin' me when you're alone and fucked up
You never pick your phone up
Always pulling shit and I might just give up
You never pick your phone up
Don't try to kiss me just to make me shut up
Don't fucking hit my phone up
Don't fucking hit my phone up

Ahhh ahhh ahhhh ah oh
Ahhh ahhh ahhhh ah oh

You never pick your phone up
Only callin' me when you're alone and fucked up
You never pick your phone up
Always pulling shit and I might just give up
You never pick your phone up
Don't try to kiss me just to make me shut up
Don't fucking hit my phone up
Don't fucking hit my phone up

Ahhh ahhh ahhhh ah oh
Ahhh ahhh ahhhh ah oh
