

Sinners

Ari Abdul

(We're both sinners)
(We're both sinners)

I love it when we talk in your backseat
A lot is said but there are no words to speak

Am I all that you think about
Tryna shut me out
When it gets too loud
Left my innocence on your mouth
We don't make a sound
But we're here right now

Oh
Yeah I never thought we'd be this close
I can still smell you on my clothes
I should've known, I guess we're both sinners
We're both sinners
Oh
You're the death of me, but I still hold
On the memories of our ghosts
I should've known, I guess we're both sinners
We're both sinners

Why does it feel like both our souls are intertwined?
When you meet my eyes
We both know that you're mine

Am I all that you think about
Tryna shut me out
When it gets too loud
Left my innocence on your mouth
We don't make a sound
But we're here right now

Oh
Yeah I never thought we'd be this close
I can still smell you on my clothes
I should've known, I guess we're both sinners
We're both sinners
Oh
You're the death of me, but I still hold
On the memories of our ghosts
I should've known, I guess we're both sinners
We're both sinners

We fall apart when we're together
17 won't last forever
If Gods watching then we're both sinners

Oh
Yeah I never thought we'd be this close
I can still smell you on my clothes
I should've known, I guess we're both sinners
We're both sinners

Oh

Yeah I never thought we'd be this close
I can still smell you on my clothes
I should've known, I guess we're both sinners
We're both sinners
Oh
You're the death of me, but I still hold
On the memories of our ghosts
I should've known, I guess we're both sinners
We're both sinners
