

Chasing Down A Miracle

Ari Hest

Tell me in the morning cause I won't recall
I'm spinning like a carousel
Don't want nobody to interfere
I'll be happy underneath this shell

In the middle of the night
I'm dreaming of her and
Chasing down a miracle
I am feeling all right
Just dreaming of her and
Chasing down a miracle

You know in the morning the sky will fall
I will give her my farewell
But all I wanna do is stay right here
And not move until I feel compelled

In the middle of the night
I'm dreaming of her and
Chasing down a miracle
I am feeling all right
Just dreaming of her and
Chasing down a miracle
I'll be chasing down a miracle

Let the moon keep shining down
Let it cool my fiery sky
I've no interest in waking up
Gimme one good reason why

I would do anything to make it stall
In this slumber I'd forever dwell
Cause in the morning she won't be near
Just a headache like I'd been through hell

In the middle of the night
I'm dreaming of her and
Chasing down a miracle
I am feeling all right
Just dreaming of her and
Chasing down a miracle
I'll be chasing down a miracle
I'll be chasing down a miracle
Chasing down a miracle
I'll be chasing down a miracle
I'll be chasing down a miracle
