

Harbor

Ari Hest

Saw the ghosts of my old selves passed
In a shadow that my body cast
All the versions that weren't built to last
Weren't built to last

Take me to the reason
Point me the direction
Take me to the harbor
Where I feel loved
Let me hear the voices
Call me to my heartbeat
Where I feel loved

Now I'm standing where the words were said
That cut the cord and left a sea of red
Gotta find out where the fury's bred
Where the fury's bred

And get back to the reason
The limitless affection
Take me to the harbor
Where I feel loved
Chase away the voices
That drown out my heartbeat
So I feel loved

There tucked away
Where I thought I could stay
Till I made the choice
To move on

But I was naïve
To assume it would be that way
Whenever
Please, take me to the reason

Take me to the reason
Point me the direction
Take me to the harbor
Where I feel loved
Let me hear the voices
Call me to my heartbeat
Take me to the harbor
Where I feel loved
Take me to the harbor
Where I feel loved
