

If I Knew You'd Say Yes

Ari Hest

It's an instinct that will drive you crazy
Likely make you wanna run
And hold on at the same time
It's a lookout, over a valley of gold
An emotion, that you don't wanna know
Is in there, and begging to turn you out

I'd be willing to go there
I'd be willing to look the other way
I'd be willing to go there
If I knew you'd say yes

In a hotel, somewhere they're speaking a
Language, I hardly get
That phone call, is gonna mean everything
Cause without it, this is only a game
And the rules state, you're all one and the same
And I hope I never believe that

And I'd be willing to go there
I'd be willing to look the other way
I'd be willing to go there
If I knew you'd say yes

Isn't it the word you're waiting for?
The one that's gonna make you believe?
Isn't it the one?
Isn't it the one?

I'd be willing to go there

I'd be willing to go there
I'd be willing to look the other way
I'd be willing to go there
If I knew you'd say yes

I'd be willing to go there
I'd be willing to look the other way
And I'd be willing to go there
If I knew you'd say yes
If I knew you'd say yes
If I knew you'd say yes
If I knew you'd say...
