

Now

Ari Hest

Have you ever seen the
Day wake from its sleep
I shiver, watching all the
Stillness spring to life

Cold blue roads surround the
Glum and weary leaving
Soon but not before the
Moon fades out of sight

It's true, we are, oblivious
Content to just survive

But I quit, you win, it's over
Let go, give up control yeah
All we got
All we got
All we got is now

Children dance around
The sprinkler, they chase after each other
Interested in nothing
Aside what they're doing

It seems so obvious
Somehow we lose our way

Lay down, release, your hold yeah
These ways have grown us older [x2]
OK, I quit, you win
OK, I quit, you win

But I quit, you win, it's over
Let go, give up control yeah
But I quit, you win, it's over
Let go, give up, recover, recover
