

Sign Of Our Times

Ari Koivunen

What if today
You had the chance
To be the king of your land
Would you be strong
Could you stand tall
Or would you fall

From fear of the light and the sight
Of what you would leave behind
Seize the moment of your coronation
To live it over
And defy the hands of time

Chorus:
These are the days you will remember
These are your lines, you have to scream them aloud
This is the life you live, your moment's now
You'll remain a sign, a sign of our times

Oh, sign of our times

Is there redemption
Or just oblivion for the weak
"What have I built?
What has collapsed?
What was it worth?"

Seek through your mind
And you'll find
All that you have left behind
Seize the moment
To defy the hands of time

Chorus:
These are the days you will remember
These are your lines, you have to scream them aloud
This is the life you live, your moment's now
You'll remain a sign, a sign of our times

By tomorrow we'll be gone
When all is said and all is done
Forgotten like last winter's snow

By tomorrow we'll be gone
When all is said and all is done
Forgotten like last winter's snow

Chorus:
These are the days you will remember
These are your lines, you have to scream them aloud
This is the life you live, your moment's now
You'll remain a sign, a sign of our times

Sign of our times
Scream them aloud
Sign of our times
